Chicago Tribune.

VOL. XXI. CHICAGO, MONDAY, JULY 8, 1867. NUMBER 8.

WASHINGTON.

The Impeachment Question.

Genesis of the Indian War.

Every Indian Killed Costs a Million Dollars and Ten Lives.

What the Surratt Counsel Propose to Do.

Terrible Havoc of the Yellow Fever in Mauritius.

FROM EUROPE.

Austrian Fleet to be Sent to Mexico after Maximilian's Body.

The English After the Abyssinians.

International Coin Agreed Upon

FROM NASHVILLE.

Radical Meeting at Franklin.

Murderous Assault on a Union League.

One Killed and Twenty Wounded.

Murder of a Federal Soldier by a Rebel.

FROM OMAHA.

Five Children Drowned.

Attacks by the Indians--Repulsed Every Time.

FROM MONTANA.

Death of General Thomas Francis Meagher by Drowning.

Another Destructive Fire at Atlanta, Ill.

Apostacy Among the Mormons.

FROM WASHINGTON.

(Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.)

WASHINGTON, Saturday, July 6.

The House of Representatives, on the assembling of Congress, at the request of Washington, met this morning, and was duly called to order by the Clerk. The Journal of the last session was read, after which the House proceeded to the election of a Speaker, resulting as follows: Whole number of votes cast, 175; necessary to a choice, 88. Schuyler Colfax received 139 votes, Thaddeus Stevens 35, and Mr. Kelley 1. The Clerk announced the result, and that Mr. Colfax was duly elected Speaker of the House of Representatives for the ensuing two years. Mr. Colfax was then conducted to the chair by Messrs. Stevens and Kelley, and addressed the House briefly, returning thanks for the honor conferred upon him, and promising to discharge the duties of the office to the best of his ability. Mr. Colfax then administered the oath of office to the members-elect, who were called up in groups of ten, and subscribed to the oath.

The Speaker announced the following Committee on Rules: Messrs. Washburne of Illinois, Boutwell of Massachusetts, Hooper of Utah, Kelley of Pennsylvania, and Brooks of New York.

The Speaker announced the following Committee on Ways and Means: Messrs. Morrill of Maine, Allison of Iowa, Hooper of Utah, Kelley of Pennsylvania, Hulburd of Louisiana, Schenck of Ohio, Dawes of Massachusetts, Wood of New York, Scofield of Pennsylvania, Brooks of New York, Blaine of Maine, Randall of Pennsylvania, Morris of Ohio, Eldridge of Wisconsin, Kasson of Iowa, Hubbard of Connecticut, Ingersoll of Illinois, Hotchkiss of New York, Hooper of Massachusetts

Chicago Daily Tribune

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH

FROM OUR SPECIAL DISPATCH.

THE INDIAN WAR.

THE STATE HOUSE CASE.

THE SOCIAL EVIL.

FROM THE PACIFIC COAST

FROM OMAHA.

FROM BLOOMINGTON.

FROM ALBANY.

FROM JOLIET, ILL.

FROM CANADA.

FROM THE SOUTHWEST.

A VOICE FROM THE COUNTRY

A VOICE FROM THE PEOPLE.

A YOUNG MAN'S VIEWS.

A LADY'S VIEWS.

THE MORTALITY OF MEN.

GRAND DEMONSTRATION TO-NIGHT.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

MISCELLANEOUS.

PHYSICAL VIGOR

HOSTETTER'S
STOMACH BITTERS

INDIGESTION—DYSPEPSIA.

FEVER AND AGUE—INTERMITTENTS GENERALLY.

BILIOUS REMITTENT FEVER.

BILIOUSNESS.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Chicago Tribune.
MONDAY, JULY 8, 1867.

THE CITY.

Steamer.—The first boat of consequence of the season was sold on Saturday to the Grand Trunk Railroad.

Accidental Drowning.—A coroner's inquest was held on Saturday afternoon at the residence of the late Patrick Gorman, on Archer-road, by Coroner Hertz, upon the body of Thomas Gorman, aged 18 years, who was drowned in the river on Friday afternoon. The deceased was in company with a number of boys, and was bathing in the river, when he was carried out into the current by the tide, and was drowned before assistance could reach him. The jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts.

Fatal Accident.—Yesterday afternoon, about 2 o'clock, a man named Thomas Gorman, residing on Archer-road, was drowned in the river at the foot of Twelfth-street. He